Omega 3s + PCa

Posted July 24, 2013

Debunks the recent Omega 3 Fish Oil population study. For example, compared to Japanese women, American women have a low level of omega 3, where small changes in risk are trumpeted as grand truths. Worse, the Japanese were not included. Omega 3 needs a randomized control trial for believable guidance. This interpretation misrepresents the facts in the context of previous trials

Surgery & Radiation Save Lives

Posted July 18, 2013

Controversy following PIVOT Trial. Intermediate and high risk patients are not candidates for Watchful Waiting (Active Surveillance); Treatment saves lives. PCa is not one disease, but several. Small Gleason 6 is one. Next week: Omega 3 fish oil controversy.
